- Top row: Four circular buttons with white icons: a gripper, a left arrow, a right arrow, and a gripper.
- Second row: Two circular buttons with white arrows pointing down, and two circular buttons with white arrows pointing right.
- Third row: Two circular buttons with white arrows pointing left and right.
- Fourth row: Two circular buttons with white minus and plus signs.
- Fifth row: Two circular buttons with white arrows pointing up and down.
- Sixth row: Two circular buttons with white arrows pointing left and right.
- Seventh row: Two oval buttons with white icons of a gripper moving up and down.
- Eighth row: Two oval buttons with white icons of a gripper moving left and right.
- Ninth row: One oval button with the text "OK" and a white arrow pointing right.
- Tenth row: One oval button with a white icon of a hand pointing to a document.
- Eleventh row: One oval button with the text "Exit" and a white arrow pointing right.
- Twelfth row: One circular button with a white exclamation mark inside a red triangle.
